

The Conference Commandments

The following rules and regulations must be read and fully understood by all registrants. While this document highlights the primary rules related to the Conference, it is not an all-inclusive list but it is in addition to the rules and regulations of our host, Honor's Haven. All participants are expected to adhere to the regulations, policies, and guidelines as well as to local, state, and federal laws concerning health, safety, and public order.

Any individual that fails to comply with these regulations is subjected to dismissal from the hotel at their own expense. No refunds will be issued. There shall be no exceptions to these rules.

Rules and regulations include but are not limited to, the following:

- † Parents are responsible for minors (age 17 and under).
- † Participants are expected to remain on the Hotel site for the duration of the Conference.
- † Unmarried and unrelated persons are not permitted to be in each other's hotel rooms. All group activity will be confined to the designated common areas.
- † Any form of physical or verbal aggression towards another individual will not be tolerated.
- † All forms of alcohol and illegal substances are prohibited. The Committee will take appropriate action if participants are found with such items.
- † Solicitation of any products will not be permitted during the course of this Conference.
- † Any and all valuables brought to the Conference facility by participant are his/her sole responsibility. The Northeast American Diocese and the Family and Youth Conference Committee will not be held responsible for the loss or reimburse any lost items.
- † Respect the Conference and the site – participants will be responsible for damages to the Hotel Property.
- † Any concerns or complaints should be brought directly to the attention of the Conference Coordinator, General Secretary, Treasurer, or other Committee Members.
- † All participants must attend mandatory conference sessions and activities. Please be on time.
- † All cell phones/pagers must be turned off or on vibrate mode during all sessions.
- † If you are taking part in any sports events, please remember to bring appropriate gear.
- † Please remember to bring prayer books, bibles, and books for Holy Liturgy.

While these are the written rules, each Conference attendee is expected to behave in a Christian manner respecting the rights and privacy of one another. Conference Committee Officials reserve the right to dismiss, fine, or reprimand individuals in violation of these rules. The aforementioned individuals also reserve the right to search individuals or their rooms if there is suspicion of criminal or inappropriate activities.
