JUNE 17 - 19, 2016

The Conference Center at Valley Forge

Phoenixville, PA

Women have many roles and a need was beginning to rise to help women in their lives while maintaining a strong foundation in Christ. The first ever young women's conference was held in 2012. The success of the conference led to the institution of a new ministry (G.R.O.W. Ministries) by His Grace Zachariah Mar Nicholovos.

The objective of G.R.O.W. Ministries (God Renewing Orthodox Women) is to help women grow in Christ throughout all the stages of their life and have a personal, life-changing relationship with God. This ministry is essential in that it provides a support system for young women while also educating them in the Orthodox faith.

This three-day/two night camp will further develop a fellowship among young women, encourage each other spiritually, and hold each other accountable.

MAIN SPEAKER

MRS. ELIZABETH JOY

DEPUTY SECRETARY FOR
ECUMENICAL RELATIONS FOR UK
REGION OF THE DIOCESE OF UK,
EUROPE AND AFRICA

Thoughts from Kochamma

“I am an activist and a visionary rooting my convictions and commitments in the Triune God.....My commitment is to a vision that believes in the possibility of building a new world with justice, peace and harmony. This compels me to be engaged in acts of liberation and transformation....My ability to relate well with others and embrace diversity has been expressed through my own life....I believe in the strength of Ecumenical Solidarity for the true witness of the Christian faith especially in this age of multi-plural contexts.”
